WORKING HISTORY

Has been a CIA agent for at least 12 years. Was involved in at least 8 undercover missions abroad as a COS, including Berlin, Haiti, Chile and Argentina.

June 2004 - July 2006:

9th assignment: BRAZIL – Brasilia Chief of Station (CIA)
Cover: TBD

June 2001 - 2004:

8th assignment: ARGENTINA – Buenos Aires Chief of Station (CIA).
Cover: Counselor for Coordination at the US Embassy in Buenos Aires.

Flew into the country in May '01 after a scandal where former COS Ross Newland was outed by a source inside the Argentina's Intelligence Agency (SI) who handed out Newland's picture, name and background to a national newspaper. Newland was moved back to Langley where is currently working and CIA-SI cooperation was temporarily suspended until 2002.

January 2000:

Promoted to Senior Intelligence Service at the CIA.

Mid 1998 - June 2001:

Position at CIA HQ in Langley

Recovered from Chile's accident

Fall 1996 - August 1998:

7th assignment: CHILE – Santiago Chief of Station (CIA).
Cover: Air Force attaché / FBI delegate / FOS-1 at US Embassy in Santiago.

Even if designated up to 1999, had to leave the position after a life-threatening accident while on vacations south of Chile (Alerce Andino National Reserve). Went under several surgeries and was given Titanium implants. Was replaced by a former USAFA mate.

New CIA Chief Station in Chile (1998 – 2001/2002): Al Piotter (52, had been already assigned to that position).

1993-1994

6th assignment: HAITI - Chief of Station (CIA).

En la cia estan muy enojados con Kirchner y Acevedo

Mensaje Estan muy enojados en la embajada con la gente de Clarín, y ni que hablar con el quinto piso.

Resulta que el sabado proximo pasado, en la pagina 10 del matutino publicaron una foto que va a traer mucha cola.

En la imagen se ve a don Sergio Acevedo estrechandose en un abrazo con el mismisimo John Kambourian, que todos saben no es ni mas ni menos que el Jefe de la base argentina de la Cia.

La foto fue publicado por un pedido expreso de Acevedo.
